Schedule A - Exception to the Senior Rugby Policy

Before a player wishes to participate in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years of age, the information in this Schedule should be carefully considered and the attached Consent Form must be properly completed and sent to the Competition Manager.

PLEASE NOTE: Players who are under eighteen and play in the Front Row (prop or hooker) must also apply for approval from the ARU prior to participation in senior rugby, as outlined in Schedule B - Exception for Front Row. The player may not play in the Front Row in senior rugby until ARU approval has been received.

Risks:	It is important that all people involved in a decision to permit a player to participate in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years, understand that rugby is a contact sport and, like all contact sports, players are exposed to the risk of injury. This risk may be heightened where a player participates in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years of age, where the player's physical development, skill level and experience are inferior to that of the players he or she will play against.
Considerations:	In assessing the suitability of a player to participate in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years of age, the coach assessing the player and the player's parent or guardian should consider the following factors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ What is the player's level of physical development (e.g. height, weight, build etc) when measured against potential playing colleagues? Is the player physically equipped to compete on an equal basis with players in the proposed senior rugby competition? ➤ Does the player have a high skill level; both specific to their playing position and in relation to the games fundamentals (e.g. tackle, pass, ruck, maul, scrum etc)? Will the player's skill level place the player on an equal basis with players in the proposed senior rugby competition? ➤ What is the player's level of experience? Is the player reasonably experienced and has the player gained that experience in a comparable standard of competition? ➤ What is the standard of competition in the proposed competition? Is it at a level in which the player can compete safely?
More information:	More information on player safety can be found at www.rugby.com.au/communityrugby
Role of the Coach - Player Assessment:	The suitability of a player to participate in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years of age must be assessed and the potential risks explained to the player and his/her parent or guardian. The coach undertaking the player's assessment must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Hold both a minimum current level 2 coach accreditation, and SmartRugby qualification, and be registered on ARU's MyRugby; ➤ Consider the player's suitability to play in a senior rugby competition against the considerations described above; and ➤ Talk to the player and his/her parent or guardian to ensure that they understand that the player will be competing against older players and this may involve an increased level of injury risk.
Role of the Parent or Guardian:	A parent or guardian of a child under the age of 18 must consent to the child playing in a senior rugby competition. That consent must be evidenced by completing the attached Consent Form.
Role of the Competition Manager:	The Competition Manager must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Ensure that a copy of this Policy (complete with Schedules A & B and the Consent Form) is included in the competition rules; ➤ Do their best to ensure that the Policy is observed by all teams participating in the competition; and ➤ Keep records of completed Consent Forms.

PARENT / LEGAL GUARDIAN

I confirm that:

- I am a parent or legal guardian of the abovementioned player;
- I have been provided with a copy of the ARU's Senior Rugby Policy including Schedules A & B of that Policy;
- The coach has explained to me that, in his/her opinion, the player's physical development, skill level and experience is sufficiently high that he/she is capable of competing safely with players in senior rugby competition;
- It has been explained to me that the risk of injury may be increased by the player playing in the proposed senior rugby competition; and
- I understand that rugby is a contact sport and, like all contact sports, players are exposed to risk of injury. I also understand that the level of risk may be heightened where a player participates in a senior rugby competition in circumstances where the player's physical development, skill level and experience are inferior to that of the players he or she will play against. In addition to understanding these risks, I also agree, to the extent permitted by law, to waive all claims for liability against any participant (including players, coaches, volunteers and administrators) and release every such participant from all liability that may be incurred in connection with the player's participation in the proposed senior rugby competition.

Schedule B - Exception for Front Row (prop or hooker)

A player younger than eighteen years of age wishing to participate in a senior rugby competition in the Front Row (prop or hooker) must also apply for approval from the ARU prior to participation in senior rugby, as outlined in this Schedule. The player may not play in the Front Row in senior rugby until ARU approval has been received.

The Player should consider the information provided in:

- Schedule A - Exception to the Senior Rugby Policy; and complete the Consent Form [Competition Manager approval is not required until ARU approval to play in the Front Row is granted], and
- Schedule B - Exception for Front Row and provide a written submission as outlined below in order to gain relevant approval by the ARU.

PLEASE NOTE: Both the completed Consent Form and written submission as outlined in Schedule B - Exception for Front Row must be submitted to the ARU for consideration of this exception.

Risks:	It is important that all people involved in a decision to permit a player to participate in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years, understand that rugby is a contact sport and, like all contact sports, players are exposed to the risk of injury. This risk may be heightened where a player participates in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years of age, where the player's physical development, skill level and experience are inferior to that of the players he or she will play against. Medical studies support that players in the Front Row (prop or hooker) are exposed to a higher level of serious injury than players in other positions.
Considerations:	In assessing the suitability of a player to participate in the position of Front Row (prop or hooker) in a senior rugby competition at an age younger than eighteen years of age, the player must provide a written submission addressing the following considerations. (i) skill level and experience and the level of coaching received – Player experience in the Front Row (prop or hooker) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Number of years experience playing in front row ➤ Did you play in the front row last year? ➤ If you missed a game through injury last year please identify the injured area (eg R.
